

Grade 3 Newsletter 1st Trimester

The children began the year with a "get-to-know your classmates" activity the first week of school.

Our new science program provides for a variety of fun science experiments. In our 1st unit we investigated properties of force and motion.

